

Acknowledgements

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to both my principal supervisor Professor Howard Burrell and second supervisor Professor Tim Blinko for their guidance, advice and willingness to be consulted at all times throughout the period of my research.

I am most appreciative of the help colleagues in the Creative Arts and Business Schools at the University of Hertfordshire have given me, as well as those who arranged research seminars in both schools which I attended and spoke at.

I am also grateful to a number of professionals in the music industry for their help in the clarification of various facts included in my thesis.

Finally, special thanks go to my wife Anna and our three sons Julius, Freddy and Romilly for their encouragement, understanding and patience throughout the last four years.

Marius Carboni

June 2010